

MTA NYC Transit
Surplus Material Sales

Conflict of Interest Policy

Policy Prohibiting Sales of Surplus Material to Employees and Immediate Family
(Does not apply to Memorabilia and Collectibles Sales)

No employee or immediate family of employee, regardless of position within the Metropolitan Transit Authority shall participate in the purchase of Surplus Sales materials and/or equipment.

Policy Prohibiting Sales of Surplus Material to Contractors
(Does not apply to Lost Property and Memorabilia and Collectibles Sales)

A Contractor is one who conducts business or has a business relationship with the MTA. Contractors shall not participate in the purchase of Surplus material and/or equipment if the Contractor is directly or indirectly involved in the decision to surplus the material being advertised for sale.
